Dewey Summons Leaders to Session To Hear Message

171st Legislature Will Meet Wednesday: Governor May Make Vital Observations

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 5 (AP)—Governor Dewey summoned Republican legislative leaders today for a private preview of his annual message to the legislature in which he will advance policies calculated to give fresh impetus to his undeclared candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

The Governor will read his message to the 171st session of the legislature when it convenes Wednesday noon and an informed source predicted that in the course of outlining state policies for the new year he would make observations of national import.

Meanwhile there were developments on the Albany political front.

1. Democratic State Chairman Frank E. Fitzpatrick attacked the Dewey administration's proposal to take over Syracuse University and make it a state university. He said the move would "not attain additional educational facilities."

2. Fitzpatrick, releasing the Democratic legislative program, demanded more state aid for cities.

3. The State C.I.O. Executive Board met in Albany to adopt a resolution assailing Henry A. Wallace's candidacy for president and condemning the third party movement.

4. Dewey again urged universal military training. Senator Robert A. Taft, a candidate for the G.O.P. presidential nomination, is opposed to it.

5. Dewey will ask the legislature in its annual message to initiate a constitutional amendment to permit New York state World War 2 veterans living outside the state to share in the $400,000,000 state bonus. Veterans now must be residents of the state to qualify.

Interim Committee Can Be Valuable in Results, Lie Says, in Upholding Marshall-Proposed Body

Lake Success, Jan. 5 (AP)—The United Nations "Little Assembly" began its year-round sittings today with Russia and the five other Soviet bloc nations boycotting its opening session.

Secretary-General Trygve Lie, in opening the meeting at 11:25 a. m., took no official notice of the boycott but he gave his full approval to the new experimental body, originally proposed by Secretary of State Marshall.

Although ignoring the vacant seats at the huge committee table, Lie took issue with the contention expressed previously by Russia that the "Little Assembly" would undermine the Security Council and threaten the entire U. N. structure.

"I am convinced," Lie declared, "that the interim committee (Little Assembly) can make a very constructive contribution to the effectiveness of the General Assembly and thereby strengthen the United Nations as a whole."

A Soviet spokesman said in advance of the session that Russia still felt the U. S.-sponsored "Little Assembly" was unconstitutional and therefore would not attend. Informed quarters said the same attitude had been taken by Czechoslovakia, Poland, Yugoslavia, Slovakia, Rumania, Bulgaria, and the Soviet Union.

A representative of the U. S. delegation maintained, however, that U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin had not given up hope that the Soviet bloc might eventually join in the new body, which was proposed originally by Secretary of State Marshall.

The "Little Assembly," known officially as the Interim Committee of the General Assembly, was summoned amid these other developments:

The Security Council was summoned to a session tomorrow to take up India's complaint against Pakistan, growing out of the fighting in Kashmir province.

Reports from Trieste indicated Italy and Yugoslavia had failed to agree on a candidate for governor of the free territory by the Jan. 5 deadline set by the Security Council. This means the issue will come back to the Council this week.

The Council was expected to take up the Indonesian question again this week.

Argentina, Canada and the United Kingdom will take their seats on the Council for the first time tomorrow, succeeding Brazil, Australia and Poland.

The five-member U. N. Palestine Committee will meet tomorrow.

The Rev. Mr. Dickson came to the Hurley and North Marbletown churches in June, 1943, at which time he was ordained and installed by the Chorus of Ulster of the Reformed Church. He received his training at Rutgers University and the New Brunswick Theological Seminary. At present Mr. Dickson is director of the Reformed Church summer youth conference, held at Oakwood School, Houghsview, and will continue in that capacity for next summer's conference.

At a special meeting of the consistories, held at the Hurley church yesterday, the Rev. J. Dean Dykstra was appointed interim moderator of the churches. Arrangements for the installation of the Rev. Mr. Dickson as pastor in Saugerties are pending the meeting of the Consistory of Ulster.

The Rev. Mr. Dickson, pastor of the Reformed Churches of Hurley and North Marbletown, yesterday announced to the consistories of the churches that he has received and accepted a call to become the pastor of the Reformed Church of Saugerties.

He will begin his pastoral work in the Saugerties church Sunday, February 1.

80th Congress Has Heavy Program; Speech Is Awaited

President's State-of-Union Message Will Be Given Wednesday in Person

Washington, Jan. 5 (AP)—Questions bearing vitally on the future of the United States and most of the world confront the 80th Congress meeting tomorrow for its final session.

Help for Europe and Asia, tax cutting, the high cost of living, rent control and the housing shortage, military preparedness and health insurance are a few of the top issues. And the list probably will grow.

A complicating factor is that this is a general election year. Democrats want to regain the control of Congress they lost to the G.O.P. in 1946. The Republicans hope to put their Presidential nominee in the White House for the first time since Franklin D. Roosevelt started his first term in 1933.

An undertone of practical politics is almost certain as each party bids for the favor of the voters who will decide the political fortunes next November.

The first week of the new session will be devoted primarily to speechmaking and strategy huddles by Congressional leaders, with a few committees starting to lay the groundwork for future legislative actions.

The Senate Republican Policy Committee and the House Republican Steering Committee will meet during the week for decisions which will go far toward shaping the majority party's legislative program to counter the proposals President Truman will outline Wednesday in his annual state-of-the-union message.

The Chief Executive will go to the capital in person to deliver that message to a joint session of the Senate and House. His economic report on Friday and his budget message next Monday will be delivered by messenger.

Taxes to Bring Fight

The first actual battle of the session probably will take place in the House over the G.O.P.-sponsored tax reduction bill. House leaders went to pass the measure this month so, as Speaker Martin put it, the President will know what to expect.

The tax bill under consideration would cut $5,600,000,000 and about 7,400,000 low income and elderly persons from the tax rolls. It goes further than the two bills Mr. Truman vetoed last year.

While the President has said nothing about his plans if he receives another tax cutting measure, highly placed White House aides expect him to oppose any general slash while the national income is at a record high. They said, however, that he will not oppose alterations to make the present tax burden more equitable.

Despite the insistence of House Leaders to force ahead with a tax bill, there is strong sentiment in the Senate to hold up action until the nation's fiscal picture can be seen in the light of contemplated foreign spending and domestic appropriations.

However, Chairman Knutson, (R-Minn.), of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee declared yesterday that "all talk of holding up consideration until a foreign relief program is disposed of is based on wishful thinking."

"Instead of fitting tax reduction to foreign relief we should fit relief into tax reduction," Knutson asserted. "And this will probably be done."

In addition to the Marshall Plan for European recovery, Congress also is due to get a separate State Department program for helping China.

The final decisions on foreign aid will go far toward deciding the amount the Republicans will try to cut the President's budget.

Mr. Truman is expected to submit a record peace-time budget of about $40,000,000,000 in his message next Monday. Shortly thereafter, joint committees under G.O.P. control will meet to work out a legislative budget as a pattern for future appropriations.

"Until I see the budget, I can't say how much we will cut it," said Chairman Taber (R-N.Y.) of the House Appropriations Committee.

Authorities Check Crates Containing TNT for Palestine

Farmer Drove Farm Sled Into Path of Train

Traveling at 80
Miles per Hour

Archibald, O., Jan. 5 (AP)—"I thought the track was clear," Jesse Wyse said today in explaining how the New York Central's "Chicagoan" passenger train smashed his farm bobsled, killing 10 children of three neighbors and seriously injuring two others, one of them his daughter.

Wyse and his 13-year-old son, John, whom the father believed "too young and inexperienced" to take the tractor-drawn sled out himself, were not hurt. The boy leaped to safety from the rear of the sled.

"I just stiffened in my seat on the tractor," the father said. "The train hit the sled, tore it loose from the tractor and hurled it down the tracks."

The bobsled was scattered for a mile along the right-of-way east of this northwestern Ohio town. No train passengers were injured and it continued to Chicago after a 57-minute delay.

By that time, witnesses said, snow nearly had blotted out all evidence of the tragedy which occurred at 1:30 p. m. (E.S.T.), yesterday.

Wyse planned originally to take the youngsters out Saturday, but was unable to do so until yesterday. His son, John, told state highway patrolmen he begged to take the sled out himself "but Dad said I was too young and inexperienced."

Wyse said he stopped at the crossing and thought the tracks were clear.

"I started up the tractor again and just as it was clearing the tracks, I saw the train bearing down on the sled," he continued. "It was horrible."

The dead were identified by Coroner H. M. Warner of Fulton County as four children of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Grieser.

Authorities Check Crates Containing TNT for Palestine

Cartridge-Making Machine Also Is Discovered in Warehouse

New York, Jan. 5 (AP)—An explanation why crates labeled "used machinery," which were being loaded for shipment to Palestine, contained explosive TNT was sought today by federal and local authorities.

The TNT, or tri-nitro-toluene, was discovered Saturday when a crate burst open during the loading of the American Export Lines freighter Executer at a Jersey City pier.

When a second crate also proved to contain TNT, police and customs officials ordered 77 Palestine-bound crates impounded and removed by barge to a safe anchorage.

Police said 26 crates were believed to contain 65,000 pounds of TNT enough to devastate a 100-square-mile area.

No charges or arrests have been announced during the ensuing investigation.

Customs officials said explosives for export require special permits and must be labeled properly. The State Department embargoed arms shipments to the Middle East last month after the United Nations General Assembly voted to partition Palestine. There was no announcement, however, that TNT was classified as a military material.

Machinery Is Found

A few hours after the shipment was impounded, New York police searched a Bronx warehouse and reported finding cartridge-making machinery and a stencil used in labeling some of the crates seized in Jersey City. They returned to the warehouse yesterday and examined other crates which they said contained radio transmitting equipment, motors, pipe and electric equipment.

The 26 crates believed to hold forecast was changed.

As an aftermath of the storms, trains here were swamped yesterday with what railroad officials said was the biggest passenger rush in 17 years. Cars were added to departing trains as thousands of holiday visitors left for home. Incoming trains also were packed.

Public schools in New York city reopen today after the Christmas holidays, but many children in other parts of the metropolitan area were promised an extra day or two of vacation because of a lack of heat and other storm conditions.

Many highways still were in hazardous condition, and some train schedules were delayed.

In the city, more than 16,000 men with 2,000 pieces of equipment worked yesterday clearing more streets and removing snow piles from gutters.

City transportation lines were reported on normal schedules. Fuel oil deliveries improved somewhat.

MacArthur Keeps His Ballot Residence in Wisconsin

Madison, Wis., Jan. 5 (AP)—Douglas MacArthur, general of the army and supreme commander for the allied powers in Japan, definitely has indicated, that he would be receptive to the Republican nomination as president of the United States, a prominent supporter said today.

Wisconsin Secretary of State Fred R. Zimmerman said that a message from the general, expressed the belief that "there can be no greater satisfaction than such as comes from the confidence reflected in the selection by one's neighbors for public service, no more challenging responsibility than lies in the fulfillment of their trust."

"I am sure," Zimmerman said, "The general meant he would perform any public service he was called upon by the people to render—whether it be as president or in the army. We who are supporting the general are positive that the general means that he regards any public service a responsibility he would have to fulfill."

Gen. MacArthur, who maintains his voting residence in Wisconsin, made his statement in a message of congratulations on the opening of the state's centennial celebration.

"As I reflect upon the events in this century of effort and progress," he stated, "I am proud indeed that my own life is deeply rooted in Wisconsin's past, for I have trod those same Wisconsin paths which my father and my grandfather once trod, and take great pride in the knowledge that my opportunity for service to country found its origin in Wisconsin's selection and appointment, as did my fathers and grandfathers before me."

"For in the labyrinth of destiny's pattern, there can be no greater satisfaction than such as comes from the confidence reflected in the selection by one's neighbors for public service—no more challenging responsibility than lies in the fulfillment of their trust."

Zimmerman and former Gov. Philip F. LaFollette, who served as a colonel on Gen. MacArthur's staff during the war, were included at a meeting yesterday which decided to enter a slate of MacArthur delegates in the state's presidential preference primary next April.

LaFollette declined comment on today's message.

Appeal Is Made For Oil Price Cut

Flanders Makes Bid, Says Slash Is Necessary to Public Welfare

Washington, Jan. 5 (AP)—An appeal for an "appreciable" cut in the price of fuel oil was made in the petroleum industry today by Senator Flanders (R-Vt.).

Flanders took this action as a Senate small business subcommittee assembled to open a two-fold inquiry into American oil exports to Canada in the face of a shortage in this country, and into the oil requirements of foreign aid programs.

Among scheduled witnesses are Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett, David E. K. Bruce, assistant secretary of commerce, Col. G. H. Vogel and Capt. Ralph E. Wilson of the Army-Navy Petroleum Board, and Max Ball, director of the interior department's oil and gas division.

Flanders wrote William R. Boyd, Jr., president of the American Petroleum Institute, urging that "you bring to the attention of your members the desirability of arresting further price advances in this necessary commodity (fuel oil), and if at all possible, making an appreciable decrease in the price at an early date."

Flanders said he realizes that the industry is paying more for crude oil for labor and transportation, and that it has additional expense in developing new oil fields.

Hence from "an ordinary business point of view" the price hikes for fuel oil "can be justified," Flanders said. But he added that the industry's "profit condition would seem to be as favorable as that of the General Electric company for making this contribution to the public welfare."

This was an allusion to General Electric's announcement last week that it was reducing prices three to 10 percent for many household appliances and other products.

New York Weighs Pipeline Plan As City Necessity

New York, Jan. 5 (AP)—Construction of a fuel oil pipeline from a key point in New Jersey to New York city was reported under consideration by city officials today as one method of assuring the city a constant oil supply.

Though Mayor William O'Dwyer declined comment, the report said he was considering asking major oil companies to join in construction of such a line unless operators of tugboats, barges and tankers and union workers agree to change their contract expiration date from December 31 to June 30 or some other date at the end of the winter season.

"The pipeline reports came as city officials, seeking to prevent aggravation of the city's oil shortage during the period of storm distress, continued efforts to settle a contract dispute threatening a strike of 1,000 workers on 100 harbor fuel barges and tankers."

The strike, threatened for last Saturday night by an A.F.L. Union, was deferred for one week until the union could file a last-minute plea by Mayor William O'Dwyer.

Meanwhile, the city's inquiry into reports of profiteering and racketeering in the sale of fuel oil and kerosene during the storm period continued today on examination of witnesses by the staff of the Commission of Investigation. John M. Murtagh, Consumers and retailers were to appear voluntarily with complaints.

Murtagh said last night he had prepared 900 subpoenas ordering suppliers, terminal dealers and retailers in the city to divulge sources and prices of supplies. He said he probably would examine 20 witnesses today, and expected to have every terminal dealer in the city in his office for questioning tomorrow.

London Women Rush For Out-dated Clothes

London, Jan. 5 (AP)—Thousands of women crowded into West End stores today snatching at out-dated clothes offered in some of London's first clearance sales since before the war.

So great was the rush that customers dispensed with dressing rooms: some ripped off their skirts for fittings beside the quickly emptying racks while latecomers watched enviously at one Oxford Street store the crowding shoppers smashed a display window.

Prices were low and the number of required ration coupons was cut in half under a board of trade regulation permitting merchants to clear their shelves of old stock. "Women are not asking for the longer skirt," one clerk reported. "In fact we have frequently been asked to shorten skirts to 'knee length.'"

Underwear and hosiery were second in demand to dresses, followed by gloves and shoes. Thousands of the women lined up throughout the night, defying rain and wind. Others got into line three hours before daylight.

Long single-file lines were formed Saturday as the Marines began boarding the transports and continued until late this morning.

Meatless, Eggless Days Out
New York, Jan. 5 (AP)—Meatless Tuesdays and eggless Thursdays—reportedly widely ignored here—probably will be dropped this week in major New York City restaurants and hotels, it was indicated yesterday. Paul Henkel, president of the Society of Restaurateurs, which represents many of the better eating places, said members would be advised to drop the program because of wide non-conformance in the industry.

French Assembly Backs Schuman With Two Ballots

Paris, Jan. 5 (AP)—The French National Assembly gave Premier Robert Schuman votes of confidence today by defeating two Communist-Pensant-De Gaulle amendments to the government's anti-inflation bill.

The Assembly voted down efforts to exclude 1,100,000 farmers from the tax bill and to exempt small artisans from the choice of paying a special income tax or investing the same amount in government bonds. The votes were 306-273 and 308-272 respectively.

Other amendments still to be voted on would reduce tax levies on war, drought and flood victims and on small family-operated businesses.

Assembly circles predicted the government's margin might be close in the voting on tax relief for war victims. But it was generally believed that it would win out.

The tax bill, as presented by the government, is designed to produce approximately 125,000,000,000 francs (about $1,000,000,000) in revenue.

Saturday when Communist and Rightist deputies sought to amend the bill, the proposal was defeated by 322 to 262.

There was considerable discussion in parliamentary circles about Gen. Charles De Gaulle's speech yesterday in St. Etienne, where the wartime French leader said he would accomplish economic reform by scrapping the present trade unions and creating labor-management associations designed to eliminate the possibility of strikes.

De Gaulle, whose French People's Party (R.P.F.), won a large following in the last municipal elections, accused the Schuman cabinet of replacing "true government" by "experiments."

Schuman's plan for creating economic stability is for drastic taxation to provide funds for reconstruction and absorb "inflationary currency." His first job as premier was to smash a Communist attack against government by ending the 92-day strike of civil servants that included 22 unions.

Dump Truck, Auto Crash on Sunday

A Board of Public Works dump truck and an automobile driven by Edward Reinhard of 383 Abel Street were in collision on Abel Street near Black Park Sunday at 11:30 p. m., the police reported.

Reinhard told police that he was driving a car owned by his brother, Leo, east on Abel Street, when he collided with city truck No. 63, a new Dodge 2 1/2 ton dump truck, driven by Edward Tuck, 39 Decker Street. The truck was coming out of Black Park after having dumped its load of snow, Reinhard said.

Reinhard reported damage to the grille, hood, and left headlight of the car which he was driving.

Forced Labor Is Charged

Philadelphia, Jan. 5 (AP)—Rep. Franklin J. Murphy (R-Pa.) asserted today that the Russians are using German and Austrian forced labor "in the thousands" in a massive war production undertaking behind the Ural mountains.

The legislator who recently returned from a seven-week tour of Europe said he received his information from a high German churchman and Soviet officials. "I have called in men—and some women too—from the Russian-occupied zones of Germany and Russia. Their families never hear from them again."

Health for All

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

A great number of people, either jokingly or seriously, approach the New Year with resolutions which border on the sublime or the ridiculous.

But whether you are among those who make resolutions or not, you will agree that any resolutions designed to insure good health are neither sublime nor ridiculous. They are merely good, common sense.

Resolutions are undertaken primarily to improve a person's habits. One person resolves to give up smoking, another resolves never to touch rum again, still another resolves to refrain from losing his temper every time Aunt Minnie misplaces her glasses.

Resolved, to get a sufficient amount of rest every night and to avoid overexhaustion, overwork or overeating.

Resolved, to follow a proper diet which will include such basic foods as milk, eggs, butter and other fats, bread and cereals, fish and meat, fresh fruit and vegetables.

Resolved, to watch my personal habits. To bathe daily and always wash my hands before eating.

Resolved, to visit my doctor at least once a year for a physical examination and chest X-ray.

Resolved, to visit my dentist at least twice a year for a dental checkup and to have my teeth cleaned.

Resolved, to spend at least one hour outdoors daily.

Sound health habits insure good health. Anyone can have this security by observing good health rules not for one day out of the year, but each and every day.

This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, 74 John Street in Kingston.

Probe Favoritism

Concord, N. H., Jan. 5 (AP)—Chairman Styles Bridges said today his Senate Appropriations Committee is investigating reports of "favoritism" in the letting of reconstruction contracts under the $300,000,000 Greek aid program. The New Hampshire Republican said he had heard complaints "favoring few firms close to the administration" were receiving contracts for wharves, roads and railroads in Greece.

Man Is Fined $10

Robert Gock, 33, of 731 Peach Street, Peekskill, Pa., was fined $10 and given a suspended sentence of 30 days in jail when he was arraigned today before Peace Justice John O. Beaver of Esopus on a public intoxication charge. He was arrested by the state police Saturday in Port Ewen. The authorities said he had created a disturbance on a bus and was put off at Port Ewen.

Deaths Still High

Despite sharp declines in U. S. deaths caused by tuberculosis about 50,000 Americans died of the disease in 1946.

Soviets, Others

Commission will hold its first meeting here Friday. The members are Denmark, Czechoslovakia, Panama, Bolivia and the Philippines.

Before today's meeting of the "Little Assembly" Russia already was boycotting three major U. N. agencies—the Trusteeship Council, the Special Balkan Committee and the temporary Korean Commission now en route to Korea to supervise national elections there.

The "Little Assembly" was set up on an experimental basis for a one-year period largely as a result of Russia's 22 vetoes in the Security Council, which some delegates contended had paralyzed that body. The veto does not apply in the "Little Assembly."

The major item now on the "Little Assembly" calendar is the veto issue itself. In view of Russia's boycott, however, many delegates were frankly pessimistic over the chances of any effective action to restrict the use of the special big power voting privileges.

Emergency Crews Work in Jersey; Schools Closed

Newark, N. J., Jan. 5 (AP)—Emergency line crews from five states worked today in freezing weather to restore electricity to an estimated 70,000 subscribers without heat and light since Friday's severe ice storm crippled power systems in a 10-county area of northern New Jersey.

A heavy snowstorm predicted last night for New Jersey moved out to sea, the U. S. Weather Bureau reported. Light snow and some sleet fell in some areas of the state.

Scheduled school openings in a number of the affected counties were postponed due to lack of light and heat, and snow conditions.

The extra line crews, from southern New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Connecticut, were called to the stricken areas by a personal appeal of Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll, who said 41 extra crews would be in the area by early today.

A spokesman from the governor's office said Driscoll had ordered the National Guard air arm to fly in the out-of-state crews, but planes were grounded by bad weather. State police escorts were provided for line trucks. They said main roads were open, but still slippery and dangerous.

The Public Service Electric and Gas Company reported it expected full service to its subscribers to be restored by today. The utility had restored service to 180,000 of 192,000 subscribers by last night, a spokesman said.

Conditions in the area served by the Jersey Central Power and Light Company were described by a spokesman as "still very bad." The company spokesman estimated that 40 to 50 per cent of its 45,000 customers were without service.

The New Jersey Bell Telephone Company reported that repairs on its lines "were going forward rapidly."

Greek Guerrillas on Move

Athens, Jan. 5 (AP)—Speculation that Greek guerrillas might attempt a new offensive in northwestern Greece was stirred today by reports of fresh troop movements across the Albanian border in the vicinity of Philates. Greek press dispatches said the movements had been spotted by government reconnaissance planes just north of that town, which is situated near the Albanian frontier about 38 miles southwest of Konitsa—target of a guerrilla drive which was smashed last week by government troops.

General Strike

Rome, Jan. 5 (AP)—Messina, a Sicilian city of 200,000, was caught today in a general strike called in sympathy with strikers in Barcelona. The new labor unrest came as the Communist National Congress in Milan mapped a program aimed at overthrowing the government of Premier Alcide De Gasperi. Palmiro Togliatti harangued the Communists with a four-hour speech yesterday, denouncing the United States and the Vatican, among other things.

Mihai Reaches Swiss Territory

Former King Is Awaiting Phone Call From Princess

Buchs, Switzerland, Jan. 5 (AP)—The special train carrying former King Mihai of Romania to Switzerland arrived at this Swiss frontier town at 8:07 a. m. (3:07 a. m. E.S.T.) today and departed an hour later for Zurich and Lausanne without the young ex-monarch making a public appearance.

An aide to the former King said that Mihai was expected to receive, on his arrival in Lausanne a telephone communication from Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma, whose hand he reportedly is seeking in marriage.

Princess Anne, now with relatives in Copenhagen, was quoted last week following Mihai's abduction as saying "I'll follow him wherever he goes."

The young couple vacationed at Lausanne recently when Mihai and his mother, Queen Helen, were returning home from Princess Elizabeth's wedding in London.

Only a handful of villagers and a group of photographers were on hand to greet Mihai's train this morning as it crossed the border from Austria.

Young Democrats Ask State Action On Divorce Laws

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 5 (AP)—The Affiliated Young Democrats of New York state, calling New York's divorce laws "archaic and anachronistic," recommends "modernization" of the statutes in their legislative program.

The program, announced by the organization's legislative committee yesterday, parallels that of the parent organization.

The report asked the Legislature convening Wednesday to appoint a commission to study revision of the laws.

"Their rigidity in form has given rise to a system of fraud, make-believe and easy divorce in which the bench, the bar and the public have all been open-eyed participants."

The committee said "The existing situation in the divorce courts of this state amounts to an open and public scandal."

The Legislature should create a commission on which will be represented the three principal faiths of the state, the bench, the bar, the women of the state and the press to consider and recommend revision and modernization of the state's divorce laws which will restore dignity, decency and self-respect to that branch of our courts."

The Young Democrats program also recommended continuation of the state rent control law; authorization to New York city to increase its transit fare from five to eight cents, and to 10 cents if necessary; more state aid to cities; increased borrowing power for New York city; a state university property law; a state university; additional state aid for education; liberalization of the Unemployment Insurance Law; voting rights for 18-year-olds; mandatory Regents examinations in American history; reapportionment; and "adequate" help for paraplegics and other disabled persons.

Medical Society Asked to Protect Public From Rays

Cleveland, Jan. 5 (AP)—The U. S. Atomic Energy Commission today asked the American Medical Association to undertake protection of the public from atomic bombs, atomic explosions and atomic radioactivity.

The request said that in war or in peace new medical problems are faced because of atomic energy.

Although the radioactive diseases are known, the scale on which they must be fought, said the request, is unprecedented. The medical profession was asked to take the responsibility for recognition of these diseases and particularly their prevention.

The message also asked the doctors to explore all possible health benefits to mankind that may come from atomic energy.

The request was sent by Dr. Shields Warren of Boston, interim director of the Division of Biology and Medicine of the Atomic Energy Commission. It was read to the house of delegates, governing body of the American Medical Association, holding a four-day session, the first midwinter meeting of the A.M.A.

Dr. Edward L. Bortz of Philadelphia, president of the American Medical Association, read the message.

Thousands of Japanese lost their lives because of a single instant's exposure to a flash of X-rays from the bombs. Their ability to form new blood was impaired. Many died because of bleeding in small trickles throughout their bodies. At that time, it was announced that there were no known medical remedies.

Now a start has been made. Only last week it was announced in the journal, Science, that a new drug, rutin, largely reduces this atomic bleeding in dogs. The belief is that rutin will protect humans. Bikini animal experiments showed that merely good nursing care would have saved the lives of many Japanese, who died without benefit of doctors, because so many physicians were killed or wounded.

Dr. Bortz said the medical profession is forced immediately to get a clear understanding of the hazards in radioactive substances. Great quantities of the ray-emitting atoms now are being manufactured for scientific, medical and industrial uses.

The A.M.A. president warned that the doctors of America are not prepared for an atomic or any other war. There are, he said, neither the hospitals nor the nurses who would be needed to care for the casualties of such a catastrophe.

NO LETTERS, NO PRESENTS

After watching the growing tide of resentment against the rudeness of printed thank-you cards for presents of importance, I am not surprised by the following letter from a bride-to-be. "I need your advice because the prospect of no wedding presents is becoming really serious. At the three principal weddings in our town lately, almost no presents were received. Mother says that the resentment people have felt against receiving printed 'thank-you' letters' from several of this year's brides has caused a real revolt against present-giving. As my own presents come in, do you think I could ask my best friends for whose gifts I have written thank-you letters, to tell others that I have written appreciative notes instead of printed cards."

I think it would be a very good idea, because I myself am one of the many who do not feel like sending a present to a girl when I hear that she is committing this printed-card rudeness.

THE MEN WHO SERVED HERE
Facts About The Men Who Were President!

Dear Mrs. Post: When one has an ambiguous name which can be both masculine and feminine: (1) Is it proper for that person to sign his (or her) name with title in parenthesis? (2) If no indication is made, then is it taken for granted that the writer is a man?

Answer: (1) It is not only proper but important that the title "Miss" or "Mr." be prefixed in parenthesis to names such as these. This problem does not apply to married women who always do write "(Mrs. John)" either before or under their signatures. (2) No, that is why it is so perplexing.

Lady Does Not Rise
Dear Mrs. Post: Does a woman guest rise when her host approaches to greet her?

THE MEN WHO SERVED HERE
Facts About The Men Who Were President!

Dear Mrs. Post: When one has an ambiguous name which can be both masculine and feminine: (1) Is it proper for that person to sign his (or her) name with title in parenthesis? (2) If no indication is made, then is it taken for granted that the writer is a man?

Answer: (1) It is not only proper but important that the title "Miss" or "Mr." be prefixed in parenthesis to names such as these. This problem does not apply to married women who always do write "(Mrs. John)" either before or under their signatures. (2) No, that is why it is so perplexing.

Lady Does Not Rise
Dear Mrs. Post: Does a woman guest rise when her host approaches to greet her?

Answer No.

Many questions are asked about visiting cards. Mrs. Post has written a leaflet entitled, "Cards and When to Leave Them." To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped addressed envelope to her, in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Arabs Find More Than One Wife Too Costly These Days

By ROBERT C. WILSON

Fez, Morocco, Jan. 5 (AP)—The high cost of living is slowly wiping out the harem in Morocco. More and more Arabs are restricting themselves to one wife at a time.

The Koran entitles a man to four official spouses, in addition to an unlimited number of concubines, but that is just too expensive these days.

Before the war an Arab could buy a wife for 3,000 francs. Now a wife costs from 100,000 to 200,000 francs (from $1,000 to $2,000).

Inflation is rampant in all phases of Moroccan life. Seven years ago a man could buy a camel for 400 francs. Now they cost up to 12,000.

While there are few pashas or caids able to afford the jewels and "babouches" (gilded slippers) for four wives, there are ways of getting around the same rule.

An Arab can divorce a wife merely by telling her before witnesses: "It is better that you return to the house of your brother." And that's all there is to it. That's the divorce.

Should it happen that the wife is guilty of a serious offense, such as adultery, the husband can even get his money back.

When an Arab marries he gives a sum of money to his bride's parents with which they outfit her with clothes and the cushions that constitute the furniture of an Arab room. In divorce cases in which the wives are at fault the parents are obliged to return the money.

Consequently, if a Moroccan can't afford to put on the dog by having four wives at the same time, it is a simple matter to have four different wives within a year.

Divorce is far easier than in Reno and, what's more, there is no sentimentality involved. The Koran puts marriage on a strictly business basis.

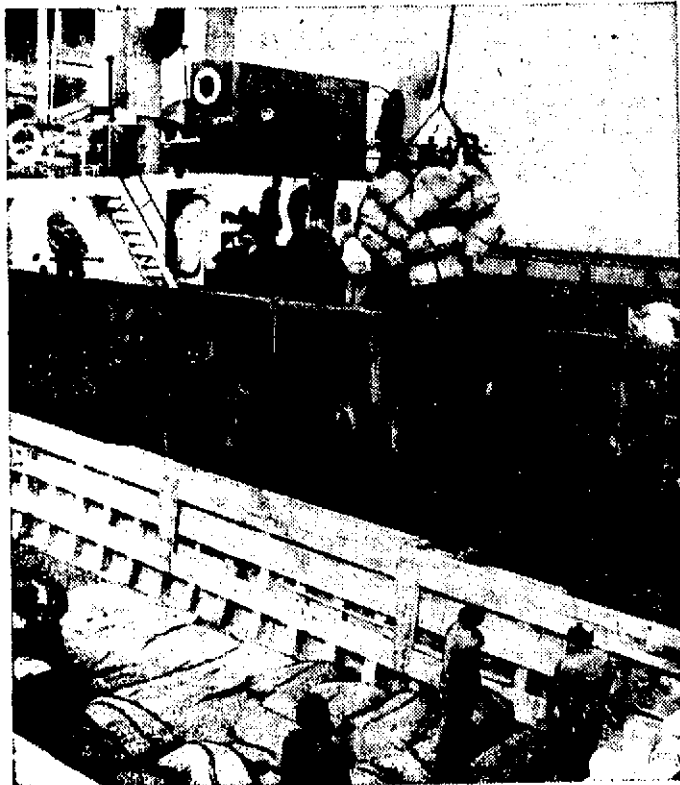

Arab sources agree that there is no real feminine movement in Morocco, but that—

"The women are becoming more and more exacting. So, it is not only too expensive, but too much trouble to have a harem of quarrelsome women. It is better to have one wife at a time."

Taste 81 Birds' Eggs, Decide Chicken's Best

London, Jan. 5 (AP)—Scientific tasters who ate 81 kinds of birds' eggs have announced they found that chicken eggs still taste best.

Dr. Hugh B. Cott of the Cambridge Museum of Zoology, who directed a three-man tasters' panel, reported the results in the scientific magazine, Nature.

With 10 as the highest possible flavor rating, chicken eggs tallied 8.8. Turkey eggs were 7.2; gull, 7.0; crow, 6.6; duck, 6.5.

Wren's eggs, at 2.0, were lowest.

Among the small birds' eggs, only the house sparrow's rated high—7.1.

In general, the investigators reported, most big eggs taste good, and the little ones poor.

Dr. Cott suggested little birds can't fight off predatory attackers easily, and possibly lay bad-tasting eggs in self-defense.

Snow Blower Is Inspected; Mayor To See Engineers

New York, Jan. 5 (AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer and other city officials inspected on Saturday a new machine, described as a snow blower, for use in snow removal.

In a demonstration on Canal street, the mayor watched the snow-colored machine push its double wheels into snowbanks along the curb, blowing the snow up into accompanying trucks.

A ten-cubic-yard Department of Sanitation truck was loaded in 36 seconds, and eight cubic yards was blown into another truck in 31 seconds. A parade of trucks moved along with the snow blower.

"It looks good," the mayor observed, "but I want my engineers to tell me more about it."

The mayor returned to city hall with Sanitation Commissioner William Powell, Public Works Commissioner Frederick H. Zurmuhlen and the other officials.

Powell said "it looks like a good machine," and Zurmuhlen, through whom arrangements were made for the demonstration, said he was "impressed" by the showing but that further study would have to be given the equipment.

He said the blower came here Friday night under its own power from Montreal where it is manufactured by the Sicaud Company and where 35 of the machines are used.

The equipment operates on the principle of New York city's "snow-go" machines but it is heavier, powered by a Diesel engine instead of gasoline, and requires no skid chains.

Commissioner Zurmuhlen said the machine would also be tried on parkways which can be opened he explained, merely by tossing aside the snow onto the landscaped area. With snow of the depth of the recent storm, the commissioner said, the blower reportedly can travel 25 to 30 miles an hour.

Among other officials with the mayor were Police Commissioner Arthur W. Walender, Deputy Mayor John J. Bennett, Commissioner of Investigation John M. Murtagh, and Deputy Sanitation Commissioner Andrew Mulrain.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

Jump to 6 Hearts Proves a Winner

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service

A few years ago championships were won generally by teams assembled from one city. That is, experienced partnerships. Today, however, bridge has become so standardized that good players do not need experienced partnerships.

For example, the national men's team-of-four championship played recently in Atlantic City, N. J., was won by Alvin Landy and Arthur Goldsmith of Cleveland. Jack Kravatz of Chicago, Jeff Glick of Miami and S. Mogal of New York.

Today's hand proved pretty much of a problem to most of the teams. When Landy picked up the South cards he decided not to open the bidding. He felt that he

♠ A 4 3	♥ A 2	♦ Q J 9	♣ K Q J 6 4
♠ J 10 7 6	♥ K 9 8	♦ A K 7 4	♣ 8 7 2
♠ N	♥ E	♦ S	♣ Dealer
Landy	K Q 8 5	K Q J 10 6 5 4	8
Tournament—Neither vul	South	West	North
Pass	Pass	Pass	Pass
Opening—♠ K	5

would have plenty of opportunity to bid.

West passed, North opened with one club and East took no action.

Landy realized now that if he used the Blackwood convention his partner's response might indicate that he had two aces, but if one of them was the ace of clubs it would not help him. Cue bidding would not be of much advantage, so he decided to take a stab in the dark and bid six hearts. He figured that even if West held the ace of diamonds and ace of clubs, he might make the mistake against six hearts of opening the ace of clubs.

A great many of the teams stopped at five hearts after employing the Blackwood convention.

Landy had a little problem in the play. When West held the opening lead and continued with the ace of diamonds, Landy trumped with the four of hearts. He felt sure West did not have the ace of clubs in addition to the ace and king of diamonds, first, because West had passed on the first round of bidding, and second, he probably would have doubled six hearts.

So Landy played a small heart of the ace and led the king of clubs. East went up with the ace, Landy trumped, picked up the outstanding trumps and had two good clubs and a diamond in dummy on which to discard his two losing spades.

RECOGNITION

The genius of the automotive industry is famed the world over. To be universally recognized as the undisputed leader in such an industry is recognition of the highest order. And to have held that position for almost half a century is an honor well-nigh without parallel. It gives Cadillac both a deep sense of pride and a deep sense of responsibility to reflect that it has been so long — "the Standard of the World."

If you are waiting for a new Cadillac—please be assured that every effort is being made to further production. Demand is so great, however, that some delay in delivery is still inevitable. But hold to your purpose! There is no substitute for a Cadillac.
